OF AN INVETERATE PISTULA IN ANO. I FIRST applied for relief of Dr. Stone, of New Orleans: from thence I went to a distinguished Surgeon in the city of New York, who operated upon me, with the knife, for the moderate sum of one hundred and fitty dollars; but when I arrived in Louisville, Ky., on my way home, it broke out again, worse than over, numbering sume eight orthices, and my health rapidly declining. I then visited a distinguished Surgeon of Lexington, who, after examining my cise, refused to treat it. I was then advised to call upon Dr. II, J. Hulce, in Lexington, Ky., who has in a few weeks cured me, in a mild, entirely sate, and pleasant way, without the knife or caustic. Let any one suffer as much, or spend as much money as I have to find a doctor that can positively sure in all cases, and no mistake, (as Dr. Ilufce was never known to lail.) and he will appreciate my motive for this notice.

THE BRITISH QUARTERLIES BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, Continue to Re-publish the following British Periodicals, &c.

The Loudon Quarterly Review, Conservative. The Edinburgh Review, Whig.

The North British Review. Free Church. The Westminster Review, Liberal. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, Tory.

THE present critical state of European affairs will reinfer these publications onusually interesting during the year 1851. They will occupy a middle ground het ween the hastily written news items, crode speculations, and the flying romors of the daily Journals and the pouderous Fonce of the future Instorian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shill have passed away. It is to these Periodicals and readers must look for the only really included and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the eading public.

Arrangements are in process for the receipt of early sheets from the British publishers, by which we shall be able to place all our Beprints in the hands of subscribers about as soon as they can be farmshed with the loreign copies. Although this will involve a very large outlay on our part, we shall continue to furnish the Periodicals at the same low lates as herefore, viz.

RESPECTFUEEY inform the traveling public that this large and conveniently arranged flotel, aner having undergone a thorough jennvation, and been entirely returnished, is now open for the reception of resident and transient visitors. They are determined to spare neither trouble of expense in making this a first class flotel and trust that their efforts will be appreciated by a due proportion of the public patronage. As they are desirous that the house shall speak for itself, they deem it unnecessary to make further promise.
